

Canlan Sports Launches She Plays Hockey Committee to Increase Participation of Girls and Women in Hockey.

Toronto, ON., February 11, 2025 – Canlan Ice Sports Corp. (“Canlan Sports” or “Canlan”) (TSX: ICE) announced an advisory committee to help increase its presence and support for girls’ and women’s hockey.

Canlan Sports has formed the She Plays Hockey Committee, which brings together a passionate group of experts, stakeholders and community members, to address key issues that impact girls and women’s hockey. The committee’s objectives include assessing the current state of girls and women’s hockey at Canlan Sports which will lead to formal recommendations to guide Canlan in growing female participation in ice hockey at its facilities and more broadly in Canada.

“We are thrilled to introduce She Plays Hockey, as creating a sports community, where everyone can connect and play, is at the core of our brand purpose.” said Joey St-Aubin, President & CEO, of Canlan Sports. “Canlan Sports has always been a leader in hockey, and we seek to create an environment at our sports complexes where girls and women can thrive within the Canlan Sports ecosystem. We continue to leverage insights from our customers, our partners and now this powerful committee, and have appointed Candace Kourounis as a dedicated Girls and Women Hockey Specialist & Manager to coordinate our efforts in this regard.”

The advisory committee comprises seven experienced and passionate stakeholders:

- Emily Clark, Olympic & World Champion and PWHL Ottawa Charge forward
- Chantalle Butler, President of Molson Coors Canada
- Brenda Andress, Founder of Shels Sports and Shels Sports Network
- Kelley Lee, Professor at Simon Fraser University, Canada Research Chair Tier 1 in Global Health Governance, Health Sciences
- Amrit Gill, Broadcaster Producer – Maple Leaf Sports & Entertainment Partnership and Co-Founder – Tell A Story.
- Tracy Robert, Board Director of Ontario Hockey Federation, Board Chair Black Girl Hockey Club Canada
- Madison Danford, PhD Student at Queen’s University, School of Kinesiology and Health Studies

“Supporting the growth of girls and women’s hockey at Canlan Sports is a priority for our board, and we are confident that insights from the She Plays Hockey advisory committee shall be a tremendous benefit to our organization” said Victor D’Souza, Canlan’s Chairman of the Board.
